

HURLING DUEL OF 14 FRAMES IS TIE

Lou North and Lefty Thomas Stag Pitchers' Battle, Which is Called in Fourteenth Stanza.

SCORE STANDS ONE TO ON

Fourteen frames of very frigid a somewhat moist pastime, in which Lou-Napoleon North and Lefty Thomas engaged in a thrilling hurling duel, were staged at Rourke park yesterday afternoon for the edification and education of several hundred rabid bugs who recklessly defied pneumonis and grip to lamp Pa's demon athletes in action. At the end of the fourteenth Ump Carney graciously called it a ball game and allowed the half-frozen fans to go home. The count when the fray ceased was I to I. flatdy Isbell and his crew put up an awful howl when the umps called the event off for the day, for Baldy thought Lefty Thomas had the Rourkes on his list and his crew had visions of knocking North senseless in the fifteenth. The gang in the press coop, having other thoughts in their minds, cheered uproar-mighty good ball game despite the cold. Both teams played swell base ball and the entire fourteen innings were replete with snappy plays and great stops. Neither side had any corner on the sensational stuff and both the home boys and the visitors were robbed of hits. Omaha counted its run in the opening stanza. Joe Burg's anatomy was punc tured by one of Thomas' slants. Hunte pulled down a drive by Smith which wa tagged for three sacks, thereby starting the miracle stuff, but Forsythe beat ou center and Burg touched the rubber. The Boosters counted their tally in th fifth on a hit by Spahr, Claire's infield out and Kilduff's error.

ously when Carney called a holt on account of darkness Play Snappy Ball.

Runs Cut Down at Plate. Des Moines came perilously near scoring on three occasions. Twice on a tempted double steals, snappy work by North and Priest, with Priest making swell throws to the plate. Booster runs Lincoln ... Stoux City were cut down, and on one accasion Oklahoma Pete Kilduff made a beautiful stop of Hahn's hard grounder and threw

Spanr out at the plate, Omaha had one chance to score, when Briest attempted to come home from first on Kilduff's double, but the relay from Meloan to Ewoldt to Spahr was too fast-

Honors Are Even. Neither North or Thomas had any advantage in the hurting duel. Both were saved on secural occasions by wonderful plays. North was in hot water a little oftener than Lefty, but he always pulled through. Both hurlers were pitching great ball in the closing innings.

Pete Kilduff, Priest, Krug, Hunter and Meloan were the lads who did the stellar Kilduff, especially, shone, although it was historror that was responathle for the Booster marker.
